

Rocky Mountain High Performance Schools: Better Places To Learn

July 27 & 28, 2006

Poudre School District will be hosting a two-day high performance building design conference this summer and we need your support!

The Rocky Mountain High Performance Schools: Better Places To Learn regional conference will target K-12 education decision makers (school superintendents and administrators) and design professionals directly responsible for school design. Up to 200 participants are expected to attend from Colorado and neighboring states.

Whether you call it green, sustainable, or high performance design, you are invited to take advantage of this unique opportunity to get your message in front of prime decision makers by becoming a sponsor of the 2006 Rocky Mountain High Performance Schools: Better Places To Learn regional conference.
